HOKULE'A

Aloha kama,

Our book called Na Hana Huaka'i was renamed Polynesian Seafaring Heritage. It was finally printed.

We are very pleased with the results of the book and would like to thank you for your contribution that helped to make the book possible. We believe teachers will find this resource book helpful as they teach Hawaiian Studies. Others interested in our seafaring heritage will also find value in this book.

Somehow, the printing machine did not pick up the glottal marks in 4 places. Some in our committee think the errors are minor and others think otherwise.

If you have any comments or changes you'd like to make, feel free to write me at [REDACTED] or call me at [REDACTED]

Please come to the PVS General Meeting

DATE: December 16, 1980
TIME: 6:30 PM
PLACE: HYATT REGENCY BALLROOM
2424 Kalakaua Avenue
(Cokotails & Pupu) (no host)

and pick up your complimentary copy. We hope you will encourage others to buy this book. The book can be purchased at The Kamehameha Schools, Extension Education Division, Hawaiian Studies Institute. Contact Audrey Wong at [REDACTED]

Sincerely,

Cecilia
