THE SPIRIT OF 'OHANA/ALOHA IN SONG

I HO'OKAHI

I ho'okahi, kahi mana'o
I ho'okahi, kahi pu'uwai
I ho'okahi, ke aloha
Ua mau ke ea o ka
'āina i ka pono.
(Repeat above)

Hui

E na'i wale nō 'oukou
I ku pono a'ole pau
I ka pono kumu o Hawai'i
Ua mau ke ea o ka
'āina i ka pono.
(Repeat above)

'E KOLU MEA NUI

'E kolu mea nui ma ka honua
'O ka mana'o 'i'o, ka mana'o lana
A me ke aloha, ke aloha
ka i 'oi a'e
Pōmaika'i nā mea apau,
Pōmaika'i nā mea apau.

E NIHI KA HELE

(Walk Softly, Commit No Offense)

E ka moani nui, kai hohonu
E lana malie kou mau 'ale.
E ka makani nui, ikaika
E pā ahehe mālie 'oe.

Hui

E nihi ka hele mai ho'opa
Mai pulale i ka 'ike a ka maka
Ho'okahi nō makamaka 'o ke aloha
A hea mai 'o ka lani a e kipa.

TRADITIONAL

Be one in thought
One in heart
One in love
(Then) The land will be perpetuated in righteousness.

Strive to obtain
These virtues-don't let them die
The virtues of our ancestors
(If followed) The land will be perpetuated in righteousness.

THREE IMPORTANT THINGS

Three important things in the world
Faith, hope
And aloha, aloha
is the best,
And everything is blessed,
And everything is blessed.

TRADITIONAL

Great ocean, deep sea
May your billows calmly float.
O great and mighty wind
Blow gently.

Tread softly do not touch
Do not rush to see
True friendship is based on love
When the royal one calls, one visits.

This song was written for Queen Kapi'olani when she took a trip to California and to England in 1887 to attend the jubilee of Queen Victoria. The song is an expression of love for the queen, a hope for calm seas, and an admonition that she tread softly in cold California and remember her crown and loved ones at home.

THE SPIRIT OF 'OHANA/ALOHA IN SONG AND POETRY

SPIRIT OF ALOHA

No one told the heart how to feel,
It just felt.....
The joy of warmth,
The pleasure of giving,
And the love of people.
The heart spoke without hesitation
Cause feelings weren't prepared,
They just were.
The heart was large, and generous
Attaching no hooks to what was given,
Rejecting no man for human erring.
The heart's communal spirit spelled
"ours" not "mine"
Cause the heart was not an island
It welcomed all who came.
"Aloha, e komo mai i ka hale"
(Come in, the house is yours.)

Poetry by Cecilia Kapua Lindo

LET OF LOVE

This flower lei I give to you
A necklace filled with love.
Enjoy the scent and beauty rare
For soon, the petals fall.

A PLACE IN THE TIDE

The spirits of my ancestors
I hear them cry in pain
As they look upon the land
Swallowed up by grabs and gains
Where once the grass was greenest
And waters purest blue
Where buildings never blocked the sun
And maile wildly grew.
But then I know the tides of change
Keep moving as they go
And I along with surf and sand
Will help to guide its flow.

KAHEA A KE ALOHA

Larry Kimura/Alice Namakelua

E ō i ka hea a ke kanaka
E hea mai ana e komo mai
E noho mai e 'ai a'e wala'au
'O ka leo kēia o ke aloha.

Ke aloha mai nō e ka malihini
No hea mai 'oe i hele mai nei?
Pehea mai nei ho'i 'oe?
E ō i ka hea a ke aloha.

Pumehana ke aloha a ke kanaka
Me ka leo nahenahe ka hea mai
Na ka iku no a'e honi mai
E ō i ka hea a ke aloha.

Ua ma'ona iho a nanea ho'i
Ma luna o ka moena maka nui
'O ka pā ahe mai ho'i a ka 'Eka
I ka la'i mālie mai a 'Ehu.

Ha'ina 'ia mai ka puana
E hea mai ana e komo mai
E noho mai e 'ai a'e wala'au
E ō i ka leo a ke aloha.

Acknowledge the call of the Hawaiian
Calling to me to enter
To come and sit, to eat and talk
This is the voice of aloha.

Welcome stranger
Where do you come from?
How do you feel?
Answer the call of greeting.

The aloha of the Hawaiian is with warmth
It's with a gentle voice when he calls
It's with the nose he kisses
Answer the call of greeting.

I am filled and content
Resting on the mat of wide weave
And the 'Eka breeze blows softly
In the gentle calm of 'Ehu.

Tell the theme of my song
Calling to me to enter
To come and sit, to eat and talk
This is the voice of aloha.

SUBJ: MOKULEIA WORKSHOP - June 15, 16, 17, 1979

Mahalo for your efforts in planning the schedule for the Mokuleia workshop.

The following are suggestions and alternatives which you might consider:

- a) Friday, June 15
7:00 P.M.

Pihana Kanaka
Reverend Ed Kealanahela
open and bless the workshop.

- b) Saturday, June 16
10:00 A.M. - 2:00 P.M.

Concurrent Sessions
"Take it to the President", as an alternative to the 90 minute movie. This would involve a personal rap session with the President dealing with the organization.

- c) Sunday, June 17
9:15 A.M. - 10:45 A.M.

"Experiences of Short and Long Voyages Aboard the
Hokule'a, to include Ben Young and Charman Akina as speakers.

Unfortunately, I will not be able to attend Sunday's activities due to other commitments.

Please let Marlene know what your thoughts are to the above suggestions, and again, Mahalo for the time and thought you have put into this workshop.

CAMP MOKULEIA DEPOSIT POLICY

Camp Mokuleia requires a deposit for all groups equal to the amount of one night's stay for meals and lodging per person before any reservation is considered final. This deposit is non-refundable and non-transferable, and must be paid at least 90 days before your scheduled camp.

Camp Mokuleia prefers 50% prepayment of your total fee for meals and lodging 60 DAYS in advance of your camp.

Any additional charges (for extra meals, sports equipment, horseback riding) will be assessed at the time of your camp and you will be billed for these at that time.

All deposits and prepayments are non-refundable. Reservations made less than 90 days in advance will be held by a 50% deposit of the total bill made within two weeks of the reservation.
