Mr. Myron Thompson
Polynesian Voyaging Society
Box 19000-A
Honolulu, Hawaii 96819

Dear Pinky:

Attached is the inventory of the Hokule'a surplus equipment which Ray Foster and I inventoried in your storeroom.

The list also includes the remaining rubber boots and foul weather jackets which are at my home.

You indicated that someone needs to review the items to determine which need to be retained for future Hokule'a use.

A surplus sale will bring in about $2,400. I recommend the same approach be used in the past:

1. Sale to crew members
2. Ala Wai swap meet

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "W. R. Benavitz".

Ms. Marlene Among
c/o Hawaii Public TV
2350 Dole Street
Honolulu, Hawaii 96822

Dear Marlene:

Most of the Hokule'a's surplus equipment inventory was sold to the crew members and at the Ala Wai Marine Boat Yard as previously authorized.

So far we have received $2,768 from the surplus equipment sale. (This total includes the enclosed $2,493 and the $416 which was sent to you earlier.)

I am pleased to report that we are within the range of the expected resale value of the inventory ($2,189 to $4,213).

The remaining inventory will fetch about $800 to $1,000 and it includes the following:

	XXL	XL	L	M
Foul weather jackets	2	5		3
Foul weather trousers	1	3	1	2
Survival suit	1

Rubber boots = 5 pairs

The 600 feet of 3/8 polyline is retained for future Hokule'a use per M. Tongg.
Two Danforth anchors are retained per W. Froiseth.

Unless otherwise directed, we will continue to sell the remaining surplus inventory.

Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,

W. R. Benavitz
Labor Relations and Training Manager

Dear Pinky:

The Hokule'a Surplus Equipment inventory which you requested is complete. Based on primarily two estimates, the entire inventory (attached) will fetch between $2,189 and $4,213. The average expected resale value is $3,201. Please inform me if you require any adjustment to the resale values.

These figures do not include the resale value of the sennit from Satawal.

I recommend two methods to dispose of the surplus equipment.

1. Sale to the PVS and crew members

Publicize the sale in the PVS newsletter. Open the sale for one day only, first come, first served.

2. Ala Wai marine swap meet

Located at the Ala Wai boat yard, 7:30 - 10:30 a.m., every 2nd Sunday. The Ala Wai marine manager agreed to advertise the surplus inventory list if PVS will authorize a swap meet sale.

Mr. R. J. Foster, Del Monte Plantations Manager, will provide the transportation required to move the equipment.

Please advise.

Sincerely,

Mr. Myron Thompson

Dear Pinky,

Reading Walter Benavitz's excellent inventory of scrap materials, I am reminded that there are items which I am storing for Hokule'a. My reasons for not adding them to Walter's list were; that I was waiting for the Voyage of Re-Discovery to be concluded, prior to disposing of them.

I also realize that funds are short, and if the following items are not required by the Navigator or Captain, they could be disposed of for cash.

Do you wish to dispose of any of the following?	Total Book
2 sets of Hamilton Ferris, Trolling Generators	Value $375.00
Original Cost $600.00 per set, including spare parts
1 Sat Nav	Value $1,600.00
Original Cost $2,700.00 including compass and antenna
1 Icom SSB radio, less automatic coupler	Value $1,350.00
Original Cost $1,895.00 less automatic antenna coupler
Total Assets	$4,025.00

If we defer the liquidation of the preceeding, until after next Summer, I can add these items to the items aboard S/V Dorcas, which PVS placed on the vessal. These items do not belong to the Wrights. We can either have a swap meet or consign them to my shop, and over a period of time, I will dispose of them.

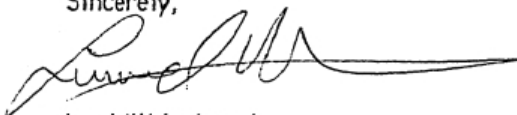

My recommendation is to defer until after the voyage. My reasons are twofold.

1. Safety: I believe all items should be aboard Hokule'a, including the trolling generators.

2. Historic Significants Due to the nature of the Voyage, I believe the historic and museum nature of Hokule'a future, will call for having some of the original equipment for display.

Please advise.

Sincerely,

Len Withington, Jr.
