POLYNESIAN VOYAGING SOCIETY

"HE HO'OKELE WA'A NO KA LĀ 'INOI"

"A canoe steersman for a stormy day!" The saying is from the collection of proverbs and admonitions in 'Olelo Noe'au by distinguished Hawaiian scholar, Mary Kawena Pukui. It attributes the qualities of courage and personal strength to a brave person.

"E 'ŌPŪ ALI'I!"

"Have the heart of a chief! Also from Pukui's 'Olelo Noe'au collection, the saying is given lovingly to those who possess the kindness, generosity and even temperament of a royal chief."

Sailed from tropical to temperate zones. Hōkūle'a left the Cook Islands in late November, a departure time specified in oral traditions, and exploited seasonal easterly winds all the way to the North Island, New Zealand.

Since there is no evidence of historical connection between these points, this was an exercise in sailing technique. - Greatest accuracy and skill of navigation and sailing was demonstrated during sustained 40 plus knot winds from the Kermadec Islands to Tonga.

Home: [REDACTED]
Office: 842-8356*

Aloha Holo,

Many, many thanks for your help. The paper bags contain the t-shirts for the volunteers.

According to Randie...the volunteers will be assisting both with the seating of the guests and hosting the entertainers.

Pat Brandt will coordinate seating the Hawaiian Societies who have a special tented area (Ahahui). She will need volunteers to assist her in this area. I guess she and Randie will work out who does what.

In any case, the volunteers should report to the dressing tent (Main Stage) by 7:00 A.M., and there they will be told what to do.

Also enclosed are samples of the colour coded seating passes. They are as follows:

PREFERRED A SEATING (YELLOW)	OVERSEAS GUESTS
PREFERRED B SEATING (RED)	GENERAL SEATING
PREFERRED C SEATING (BLUE) They have a special tent.	HAWAII SOCIETIES
PREFERRED D SEATING (GREEN) Stage Seating	DIGNITARIES

If you have any questions, please call me, and again thank you for your help.

Maulene

The volunteers should know that the seating area is only by pass. All others sit on the ground.
