Dear Marlene:

Thank you for the check for Pinky and Bob:

Enclosed is an invoice for Laura and her ticket.

If PVS does not co-sponsor the Tahiti tour, I cannot ask for money for PVS in our brochure.

Is there a problem with liability? You were not liable for the New Zealand tour...yet it was co-sponsored.

If there are some problems that I am not aware of, please let me know of them. If PVS would rather not have me plan this tour, it is better that I know now. I would need to cancel our Tahiti arrangements soon.

I carry liability and would be using a commercial, scheduled aircraft, reliable hotels and buses in Tahiti.

Aloha and do hope to hear from you soon.

FULL DAY excursion of Northland in TAINUI ADVENTURE WAGONS with friendly and knowledgable TAINUI TRAVEL GUIDE. We leave PAIHIA and travel first to KERIKERI where we have an opportunity to pick some fruit at one the many orchards that dot the area. We can also visit some local crafts people including well known New Zealand POTTERS. We visit the oldest building in New Zealand and learn something of the Maori and European history that shaped this area.

We leave Kerikeri and divert to the coast where we pass through the rural coastal communities of Matauri Bay and Wainui. This is a subtropical paradise reknown for clear waters, abundant seafood and big GAME FISHING.

We continue North passing by the seaside resort communities of WHANGAROA, MANGONUI (where we can purchase fresh fish for our BBQ lunch). At TAIPA we can if the tide is right gather shellfish to compliment the meal. (all prepared in the great outdoors). We pass by CABLE BAY and COOPERS BEACH before seeking some desirable spot for lunch.

We travel onto AHIPARA to view the famous ninety mile beach and the impressive westcoast sandunes. We learn about the mighty KAURI forest that once stood in this area and how the gum from this tree shaped the community of KAITAIA that stands nearby.

We now travel inland passing over the lovely MAUNGMUKA mountain range. On the southern side of the range we take a diversion off the beaten track to a recently opened KAURI SANCTURARY at OMAHUTA. We take time to wander among some of these forest giants on a beautifully constructed/planned walking track. We have afternoon tea nearby in a place completely unspoilt by man. Learn from your TAINUI guide about the flora and fauna of our Northern subtropical forests.

We cross over to the upper reaches of the Hokianga Harbour and cross at KohuKohu to Rawene and drop into local country hotel (not on sunday) for a drink and chance to meet locals. This area is steeped in Maori and Europen histry.

On our return to Paihia we pass through the rural township of Kaikohe and will see many PA sites once occupied by famous NGAPUHI leaders and their people. We pause briefly at WAIMATE NORTH to view the Mission Station and its relevance in our colonial past.

It is known to the Maori people as TE REINGA WAIRUA is believed to be the departing place of the spirits. At the meetingplace of the oceans the spirits begin their journey to the mythical homeland of the MAORI - HAWAIKI.

BAY OF ISLANDS - HOKIANGA - AUCKLAND

Depart BOI and travel through WAIMATE NORTH past ancient Maori PA sites to historic Hokianga Harbour on the westcoast. We learn why they call this place TE HOKIANGA NUI O KUPE, and much more about its Maori and European history.

Day Two

AUCKLAND - TAURANGA - ROTOITI

After breakfast we travel sou. th from Auckland on Hw 1 through the market gardening area of Bombay.
We cross the Hauraki Plains - a predominately dairy farming region with the odd deer farm.

We follow the Waihou River as it flows north into the Firth of Thames and pass by the spot that Captain Cook made a landing in 1769. We pass through the rural community of Paeroa and on into the Karangahake Gorge and the old goldmining communities of Waikino and Waihi.

GOLDMINING COUNTRY

We visit a local gold museum and hear some of the history of the numerous gold mines here and on the adjacent Coromandel Penninsula where some mining still goes on.

We have the chance to view the remains of what was one of the largest batterys and stamper (gold bearing ore) in the world. It is hard now to imagine the vast community that populated the Waikino valley during that colourful period in our history.

Leaving Waihi we enter the sundrenched Bay of Plenty, once a major dairy farming area - in recent years large scale diversification has taken place and high producing farmlands have been replaced by even higher producing well manicured horticultural blocks. Huge shelter belts of quick growing trees and hedges criss cross the countryside offering protection to all manner of fruits and berries including the internationally known "KIWIFRUIT".

We take the opportunity to visit a local kiwifruit grower, and to sample some of his fruit and wine. Nearby we visit the renowned Morten Estate Vineyard where we can make a selection to have with our lunch which we have at the beautiful "Vines" Restaurant, set in the grounds of the vineyard. (Winery not open on Sundays).

After a relaxing lunch in this beautiful rural setting we travel on to the East coast resort centre of Tauranga before travelling southt to the thermal region of Rotorua.

MAORI LIFESTYLE EXPERIENCE

By late afternoon we arrive at WAIKOHATU MARAE.

This evening will be a truely unique experience for all of you. We are to be the honoured guests of the Ngati Tarawhai people at their Marae.

> "THE MARAE, an institution from the past has survived the impact of European society and now provides not only a refuge for Maori people where lifestyle and values remain unchanged, but is central to the concept of Maoritanga and Maori cultural identity. It is the place where Maori oratory, language values, social etiquette and philosphy are expressed and reaffirmed. It is not an entertainment centre - it is a place where you as a visitor will be invited to participate in the lifestyle of the people".

On arrival at the Marae we await the Karanga (call) onto the Marae. We move on as a closeknit group and participate in the Powhiri (speeches of welcome and acknowledgement).

> Our Maori people allow us access to the Marae on the understanding that we do not compromise the protocol and values of the Marae. Therefore, the welcoming ceremony we participate in is authentic and designed to ensure welcome, hospitality and well being for the whole group.
>
> *During our trip to the Marae, TAINUI guides will teach you a Maori song and the proper way to do the Hongi (Maori form of greeting).
>
> "HAERE MAI KI TE KAI" - "Come and eat"

Hospitality is an important aspect of Maori lifestyle. You will be treated to Maori cuisine - and later to a special concert put on for you by your hosts.

You also have full use of the Marae facilities which include a private golf course, lake at doorstep with excellent trout fishing opportunities, private access to bush walks, rivers and lakes.

End the day with traditional bathing at nearby tribal owned natural soda mineral hot springs in rural setting. Then you can enjoy the companionship of story telling and singing in the WHARENUI (Sleeping house/meeting house) where we spend the night sleeping Maori style on super comfortable mattresses and featherdown bedding. Listen to tribal elders explain the history and significance of the magnificent carvings and weaved panels which adorn the house. Drift off to sleep to the sound of the KOAUAU (flute) played by one of our leading exponents.

Meals: B, L, D

ROTOITI - ROTORUA

Day Three

After breakfast we say farewell to our Maori hosts and travel by private roads to nearby TARAWERA FALLS - beautiful, accessible wilderness.

We then visit TANIWHA SPRINGS to view trout that abound in this area. We spend a liesurely hour at the springs enjoying the beautiful and peaceful surroundings. We visit a local farm holding to watch a shearing demonstration and to talk with the farmer about his animals and their care. His wife is an expert at spinning wool and demonstrate her craft. We have lunch with this family at the farm which overlooks Lake ROTORUA.

We visit another Maori family who are successfully growing produce by HYDROPONICS and have a chance to learn about this fascinating process.

We visit Ohinemutu Maori village and St Faiths church which is renown for various Maori art decorations and carvings.

We travel up Mt NGONGATAHA to view the Rotorua area. We get a superb view of the Lakes and Mountains.

Finally we visit WHAKAREWAREWA THERMAL RESERVE and MAORI ARTS AND CARVING INSTITUTE. We walk through the park passing by boiling mudpools and steaming lakes and geysers. At the Institute we see gifted Maori carvers at work producing carvings for meetinghouses throughout the country. Many of the PouPous in Tarawhai were carved by the people at this centre.

We leave Rotorua late afternoon and travel to our overnight destination of TAUPO. We travel through part of the largets man made forest in the world.

Evening at liesure.

Day Four

TAUPO - HAMILTON - AUCKLAND

Before leaving the area we visit the site of WAIRAKEI THERMAL Power Station and stop briefly at the wierd "carters of the moon" recreational park where there is constant thermal activity.

We travel north through exotic forest areas, major dairy farming centres and horse and cattle studs. This lower Waikato basin is premier New Zealand farmland. We take a short diversion to view one of the many hydro power stations that dot the Waikato river on its 217 mile journey to the sea - just south of Auckland.

We have lunch near the Waikato City of HAMILTON before continuing north to Auckland our overnight destination.

We arrive in Auckland midafternoon. Evening at liesure.

There is still much evidence of their engineering and agricultural deeds. We will visit the Auckland museum which houses the biggest collection of Maori artefacts in the world as well as a full meetinghouse and authentic war canoe.

TO: Polynesian Voyaging Society
RE: Tour to New Zealand
FROM: Hawaii 2000 Trudi Zelko

Enclosed is information that could be used in the invitation letter to all yourmailing lists.

Suggestion: Myron Thompson write a welcome/Aloha to everyone - short paragraph - follow with my information on the outline of the tour.
On the reverse side of the paper, list the tour packages and costs and options.

A separate paper on my stationery with registration (enclosed)

Please circulate this information and add, delete, change as you wish.
We should have this ready to be mailed by June 1st, if not actually mailed.

I called Judy at the Waitangi Hotel. She was delighted to book rooms at the hotel but had 2 dates that are completely booked out. Dec. 1 and 6. So I took 30 rooms for Nov. 26 to Dec. 1 and Dec. 3 to 6. We can tour the north islands or Auckland for 2 nights. (providing the ship does not arrive then).
If any rooms are available for the entire period, she will save them for us.

A nearby motel (suggested by Judy) and closer to the Marae is Sea Spray. Beryl Taylor said she would reserve units for us. Sleeps 2/3 or even 4. One bedroom, lounge and kitchen units. She and her husband Richard will try to give us as many units as possible of their 24 units. She is writing to me this coming week. They suggested that the 8 unit motel next door to them is good and they will advise me if they can confirm any units there. This is just general information for you. I will continue to write,telex and talk to each. (They are expecting Rosalie Lyons Davis and me to see them Aug. 3-6)

I suggest we mail as soon as possible this information. We can follow it up with a newsletter of additonal information...tour packages to other areas, costs of local tours in New Zealand, clothing lists, etc.

Word of mouth and name dropping in the newspapers will enhance our chances of a full 100 people.

Suggestion: talking to New Zealand people this weekend...cost of full American breakfast at hotel/motel is about $3.50. We should not offer too much money to the Marae as it might insult them or make us appear rich americans... Food for 2 meals would not cost more than 6-7 U.S. dollars - group cooking and locally prepared.

Donation to Polynesian Voyaging Society could be $75.00 per person or $100.00. This includes a t-shirt for each and the cost of mailings.

I will answer all registrations and requests.

DOCUMENTS CAPTURED AS RECEIVED

We have 100 seats confirmed on these flights. If you wish to change the dates of the flights, do call immediately. Space is becoming scarce for this period.

November 25 12:05 a.m. (just after midnight Nov. 24) Depart Honolulu on Continental # 1
November 26 7:50 a.m. Arrive in Auckland (met by private coach and 4 hours to Paihia)

December 09 8:45 p.m. Depart Auckland on Continental # 2
6:05 a.m. Arrive in Honolulu.

We will have bag tags; pay for all airport porterage and bus porterage.

The tour cost explanation is typed on my stationery. If you wish to xerox it as is, please do so. Any changes necessary, I would like to know before it is final.

Looking forward to an exciting and rewarding trip.
