

The Conference Schedule
Saturday, November 21, 1987
Keauhou Beach Hotel

6:30 - 8:00 a.m.	Registration Desk Opens at Kuakini Halau
8:00 - 9:00 a.m.	Opening Ceremony at Kuakini Gardens
9:15 - 10:30 a.m.	Workshop Session I
10:45 - 12:00 noon	Workshop Session II
12:00 - 1:30 p.m.	Lunch (at your own expense)
1:30 - 2:45 p.m.	Workshop Session III
3:00 - 4:15 p.m.	Workshop Session IV
4:30 - 5:30 p.m.	Closing Ceremony at Kuakini Gardens
5:30 - 8:00 p.m.	Graduation Reception, Happy Hour Cocktails (at your own expense)

The Conference Sponsors

The Art Source	Keauhou Beach Hotel
The Azabu Group, U.S.A.	Kona Genealogical Society
Budget Rent A Car	Polynesian Voyaging Society
E Ho'ohawai Kakau	The Triton Group
The Foundation of I	Tropical Rent A Car
Hawaiian Air	Wayne's Printing
Health International
Kamehameha Schools
Ext. Education Div.

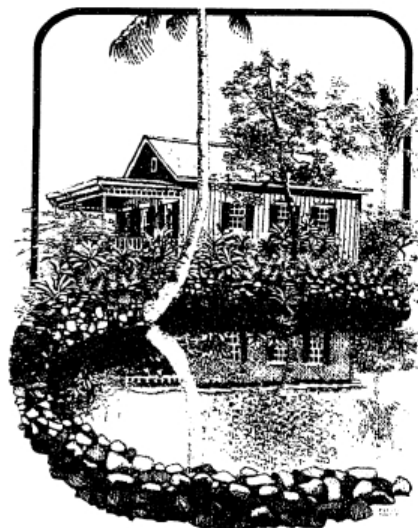

Credits

Cover artwork by Edwin Kayton.
World Map by Hq Oahu Signal Service
Anonymous Quote from Honokohau
National Historic Landmark
Data Report, 1973

ADVANCE RESERVATIONS ARE REQUIRED
CALL: 322-3441
BETWEEN 9:00 A.M. - 12:00 NOON
(The First 200 Reservations Will Be Confirmed)

Confirmation Number: _____

The Conference
at
PO'O HAWAII

Keauhou Beach Hotel

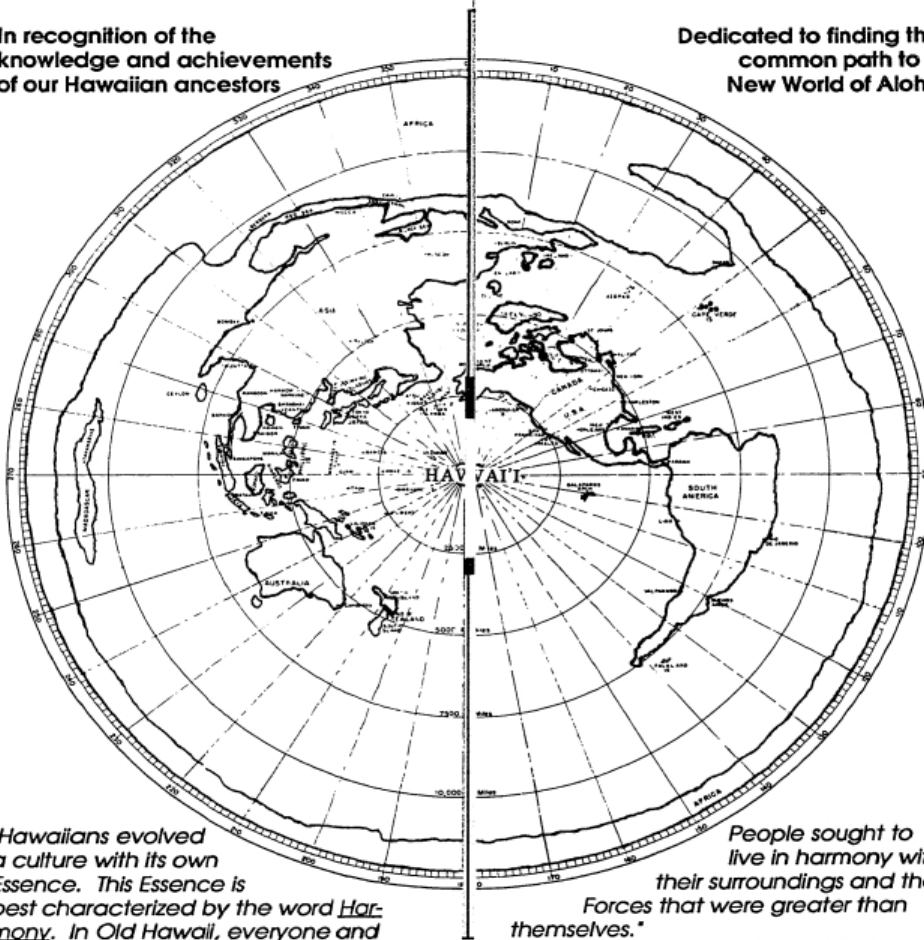

November 21, 1987
— Saturday —
8:00 a.m. Through Sunset

No Admission Charge
ADVANCE RESERVATIONS ARE REQUIRED
Instructions on Back Panel

THE CONFERENCE AT PO'O HAWAII

In recognition of the knowledge and achievements
of our Hawaiian ancestors

Dedicated to finding the common path to a
New World of Aloha

"Hawaiians evolved
a culture with its own Essence. This Essence is best characterized by the word Harmony. In Old Hawaii, everyone and everything had a place and reason.

People sought to live in harmony with their surroundings and the Forces that were greater than themselves."

— Anonymous

The Way Of The Hawaiian

At this very moment, we are moving through our solar system at 66,000 miles per hour. We will travel 580,000,000 miles together, this year alone. We live this life virtually, in perpetual motion on an island called Earth. Humanity today, faces its greatest challenge, that of achieving harmony and a peaceful co-existence with Nature, and among all Nations. In 1986, the Nobel Peace Prize for Medicine was presented to two physicians, one from the Soviet Union, the other, an American.

In a combined statement they said:

"We will have one World,
or we will have no World.
We will live together, or
We will die together."

This global condition affects us all. It requires serious and personal thought, followed by positive actions directed towards achieving a new balance and spirit of cooperation. This process fittingly, starts at Home. More specifically, it begins within each one of us.

In Hawaii, our host culture provides a vital blueprint and design that will enable us to re-think our priorities and shape our subsequent actions. For this reason, and out of a sincere respect for the teachings of our Hawaiian ancestors, the organizing committee and sponsors are proud to present The Conference at Po'o Hawaii. This will be a day of workshops and the sharing of knowledge that begins to explore "The Way of the Hawaiian". In her publication, Olelo Noeou: Hawaiian Proverbs and Poetical Sayings, Mary Kawena Pukui reminds us:

"Ua lehulehu a manomano
Ka 'Ikena a ka Hawaii
Great and numerous is
The knowledge of the Hawaiian"

THE WORKSHOPS

The Way Of The Hawaiian

- continued -

Throughout history, Po'o Hawaii served as a residential retreat for Hawaii's rulers, leaders and top advisers to include: Alapa'i Nui, Kamehameha the Great, Queen Kaahumanu, Keekumoku, King David Kalakaua, and Governor Kuakini. Here they sought peace, relaxation, tranquility, good climate and revitalization, as well as, the recreational waters of Kahalu'u Bay. Here, the leaders of the past, would learn new perspectives and strategies as they sought counsel from the great Kahuna — priests who advised them on the spiritual nature of their personal, domestic and foreign affairs.

Today, the learning tradition of Po'o Hawaii is perpetuated and it is the ideal center for a conference on Hawaiian teachings. As students of the culture, we have a responsibility to come with open minds and a sense of shared purpose. Clear your schedules and prepare for this event. Attend it, well-rested and ready to learn. The first 200 reservations will be confirmed, so read the instructions on the back panel and take action now!

This conference is aligned with two astronomical events worth noting. First, the star group Pleiades will rise on the eastern horizon at sunset on Friday, November 20. Second, there is a new moon on the day of the conference, November 21. This annual sequence of events marked the beginning of a new cycle in the lives of our Hawaiian ancestors. For the Conference at Po'o Hawaii, these events further create a feeling that we in Hawaii are about to come Full Circle... into the dawning of a new era of

Aloha

The Conference At Po'o Hawaii

Keauhou Beach Hotel / Keauhou, Kona, Hawaii

MR. MYRON THOMPSON

Lauka —
from Pinkie

(md)

The Conference At Po'o Hawaii

AN INVITATION TO ATTEND
November 10, 1987

Board of Trustees of the Kamehameha Schools/Bernice Pauahi Bishop Estate

Mr. William Richardson	Mr. Richard Lyman	Mr. Myron Thompson
Mr. Henry Peters		Mr. Matsuo Takabuki

Aloha Gentlemen:

On behalf of the organizing committee of The Conference at Po'o Hawaii, I am honored to present to each of you, an invitation to attend this Conference. On Saturday, November 21, 1987, the opening festivities and Conference will begin at 8:00 a.m. on the grounds of the Keauhou Beach Hotel in Kona. Each of you is welcomed to bring a guest.

Interest in this Conference has been overwhelming and I have enclosed the first and only advertisement which appeared in the November 8, Sunday Edition of the West Hawaii Today newspaper. In it, the Hotel's Manager, Mr. Matt Bailey, is announcing the Conference to the community, while at the same time, mentioning that the event is completely booked. Of special interest is the list of communities from which people have responded immediately after the first day of brochure distribution.

At your convenience, please review the enclosed brochure that outlines the contents of the Conference Workshops and the day's schedule of events. On the back panel, you will note the Kamehameha Schools, Extension Division listed as a co-sponsor. The Division is assisting us in coordinating the workshops and teachers that our organizing committee has selected. Since the brochure was printed, we have also gained the support of the Kamehameha Investment Corporation and the Keauhou Shopping Village. Their assistance is timely in underwriting several Conference expenses and they will be added to the list of contributors in all forthcoming media releases and Conference Programs.

This Conference was initiated by the senior management of the Keauhou Beach Hotel. Upon being notified of their interest and intent I gladly volunteered my services. This Conference, I feel, is a commitment by The Azabu Group U.S.A. that will strengthen the bond between this Japanese investor-owner and the Hawaiian community here in West Hawaii.

Keauhou Beach Hotel / Keauhou, Kona, Hawaii / phone 322-3441

Board of Trustees November 10, 1987

2

Mr. Joe Spencer of the Kamehameha Investment Corporation has arranged a convenient RSVP Center in their Kawaiahao Plaza office. Please notify Office Manager, Mrs. Edith Won by Wednesday, November 18, as to whether you are able (or unable) to attend. Should you require lodging accommodations, your secretary can call the Keauhou Beach Hotel directly at 322-3441. The standard kama'aina rate of $45, plus tax, (per night) would apply.

A few years ago, I learned that when Princess Bernice Pauahi was fifteen years old, she recorded in her diary or journal, a visit she made to Kahalu'u Bay. Upon landing on the shore at Kahalu'u, she recalled having lunch off to the right in a cluster of palm trees. The spot she was referring to is Po'o Hawaii and your combined presence at this Conference will bring a significant dimension in this the 100th anniversary of The Kamehameha Schools.

Mahalo a nui loa,

John A. DeFries, III

John A. DeFries, III
Chairman, Conference Organizing Committee

Enclosure

cc: Mr. Joe Spencer, Kamehameha Investment Corporation

Mr. Matt Bailey, Manager of the Keauhou Beach and Kona Lagoon Hotels, The Azabu Group U.S.A.

Room - 150 to 200 — Steak House

after 4-canned Durken 9

Dang,